CHI Health Center Omaha

Built for $291 million and finished in the fall of 2003, CHI Health Center Omaha is a key element in the continued renovation and development of Omaha’s riverfront.

The facility formerly known as Qwest Center Omaha (2003-11) and CenturyLink Center Omaha (2011-18) is located on a 421-acre site of the former Union Pacific Railroad yards, just a few blocks from Creighton’s campus, the historic Old Market and three miles from Eppley Airfield.

In 2018, CHI Health agreed to pay $23.6 million over 20 years for the naming rights to the arena.

Among the amenities at CHI Health Center Omaha are seven locker rooms, five dressing rooms and a media interview room. The Creighton locker room contains secure, wood-paneled lockers and is located just a short walk off the court.

In the summer of 2023, a lighting upgrade project was completed. A $6 million Daktronics, Inc., scoreboard hangs from the arena center. The scoreboard is more than 26 feet in height and approximately 32 feet in diameter. The scoreboard was upgraded in the summer of 2013 and is one of the nation’s finest, as CHI Health Center Omaha is one of the nation’s only arenas to have 4 mm and 6 mm pixel configurations to give fans significantly better resolution.

Twelve permanent concession stands and 20 free-standing kiosks help feed and quench thirst for crowds of up to 17,352 for basketball and 18,300 for concerts.

CHI Health Center Omaha provides more than 194,000 square feet of exhibition space, and the exhibit hall can hold dinners for up to 15,000 people at once. Downtown Omaha’s 40-story First National Bank Tower could be laid down inside the length of the exhibit space.

Funding for CHI Health Center Omaha came from private donations, taxes and projected revenue from the facility.

The facility has hosted some of America’s top sporting events, including the NCAA Men’s Basketball Championships (2008, 2012, 2015, 2018 and 2024), NCAA Volleyball Championships (2006, 2008, 2015, 2020 and 2022), U.S. Olympic Team Trials for Swimming (2008, 2012, 2016 and 2021), NCAA Wrestling Finals (2010), the U.S. Figure Skating Championships (2013) as well as four title fights for boxing champion Terence Crawford.

The facility has also hosted concerts by artists such as The Eagles, Justin Timberlake, Lady Gaga, Katy Perry, Taylor Swift, ZZ Top, Prince, Bruce Springsteen, Dave Matthews Band, Billy Joel, The Rolling Stones, Paul McCartney, Aerosmith, Luke Bryan, Travis Scott, Britney Spears, Justin Bieber, Alan Jackson, U2, KISS, Jimmy Buffett and Garth Brooks.

More than 1,700 new seats were added to the upper deck on the north side of the building during the summer of 2006, moving capacity to 17,352 for basketball.

Located one block northwest of CHI Health Center Omaha is Charles Schwab Field Omaha, which opened in 2011 as the home of Creighton baseball and the NCAA Men’s College World Series.

The McDermott Center

The McDermott Center

The Kyle Korver Courts features two full courts, 12 hoops and four scoreboards.

Creighton opened The Championship Center in the summer of 2014, a facility that benefits all student-athletes. The building was renamed The McDermott Center in the summer of 2024 in honor of head coach Greg McDermott and his family.

Located adjacent to D.J. Sokol Arena and the Wayne and Eileen Ryan Athletic Center, The McDermott Center is highlighted by the Athletic Performance Center, Wayne and Eileen Ryan Athletic Training Center, the Parker Family Academic Resource Center and the Kyle Korver Courts inside D.J. Sokol Gymnasium, among many other features.

"I wish we could take it back to Denver. I was talking to the coaching staff here, Coach McDermott and his staff, obviously their hospitality and allowing us to be here. We're thrilled. One of the coaches said, 'Is there anything we can get you guys?' I looked around this gym. But this is state of the art, beautiful. Very, very excited to be here in Omaha. ... This is a nice, nice place and this allows us to have a great training camp because everything here is just perfect and what we're looking for. With 20 guys you need two courts. So it's perfect, really like it a lot."

Three Sweet 16 trips in the past four years have established Creighton Basketball as one of the nation's top programs. With three fifth-year seniors and seven others with multiple college seasons under their belt on this year's roster, the Bluejays are in prime position to once again contend for a spot among the BIG EAST's and nation's best.

At the center of the most successful run in program history has been three-time BIG EAST Defensive Player of the Year Ryan Kalkbrenner. Already the program's all-time NCAA Tournament leader in points, field goals, blocks and wins, Kalkbrenner enters his fifth year with a chance to become the sixth man in Division I history with at least 2,000 points, 1,000 rebounds and 400 career blocked shots.

Point guard Steven Ashworth had a smooth transition to Creighton last year after transferring in from Utah State. He made 80 three-pointers and averaged 11.1 points per game as well as ranking second on the team with 4.2 assists per game.

Creighton's third returning starter is junior Mason Miller, who led the BIG EAST with 45.4 percent marksmanship from three-point range a year ago.

Other returners to keep an eye on are center Fredrick King and forwards Jasen Green and Isaac Traudt.

King proved to be a capable back-up behind Kalkbrenner in limited action.

Mason Miller

Ryan Kalkbrenner

Green shook off a broken hand early in the season to play his best ball down the stretch, hauling in nine rebounds in a double-overtime NCAA Tournament win over Oregon. Traudt has reformed his body after shooting 42.1 percent from behind the arc in his rookie season with at Creighton.

The Jays welcome six newcomers to the program this winter, a group led by transfers Jamiya Neal (Arizona State) and Pop Isaacs (Texas Tech). Both men averaged double-figures and will help CU replace All-BIG EAST wings Trey Alexander and Baylor Scheierman, who are both in the NBA now.

The Jays also brought in four other highly-regarded newcomers. Freshmen Ty Davis, Larry Johnson and Jackson McAndrew comprise another Top 25 recruiting class, while Montenegro native Fedor Žugić has held his own against some of Europe's best players and will look to make an immediate impact.

Davis is a true point guard from Alabama who has shown no fear in his first months on campus. McAndrew ranks as Creighton's top-ranked recruit of the Greg McDermott era and is also known for his outside shot.

Johnson is a wing with bounce, while Žugić is a playmaker who has made an early impression with his ability to shoot the ball off the dribble.

Creighton also redshirted four men last year who are itching to have a chance to make a difference on the court. Sami Osmani is a fifth-year senior guard, and forward Josh Townley-Thomas has made great strides over the past 12 months. Add in Las Vegas natives Sterling Knox and Shane Thomas, and the Bluejays have one of their deeper teams in recent memory.

In addition to a rigorous 20-game BIG EAST schedule, Creighton will also be put to the test in non-conference play. The Bluejays host Kansas and visit Alabama, two teams expected atop the preseason Top 25 poll. Add in games against the likes of UNLV, Nebraska, Oregon, Texas A&M and San Diego State, and it's easy to see why the Bluejay fan-base can't wait to start what promises to be another thrilling season.

Greg McDermott

Head Coach - 15th Season at Creighton

Greg McDermott begins his 15th year at Creighton after leading the Jays to new heights the last few years.

The dean of BIG EAST coaches has seen the Bluejays appear in the Sweet 16 three times and the Elite Eight once in the last four years while leading CU to eight straight top-four finishes in BIG EAST play.

Named the 16th head coach in Creighton men's basketball history on April 27, 2010, McDermott boasts a 325-160 record in his first 14 seasons, while returning the program to the national rankings with an up-tempo style of play that has seen fans turn out in record numbers.

Thirty-two of 33 seniors to complete their eligibility the past 11 years have earned their undergraduate degree, with 23 going on to play professionally and four others to graduate school.

Last year Creighton tied for second in the BIG EAST, matched its best NCAA Tournament seed in program history (No. 3), and returned to the Sweet 16. Baylor Scheierman earned All-America honors and went on to be a First Round pick by the NBA champion Boston Celtics. In the offseason, the contributions to Creighton by McDermott and his family saw The Championship Center renamed to The McDermott Center.

In 2022-23 McDermott led a Bluejay team to its first preseason top-10 ranking, then helped the club move as high as seventh in the AP poll after reaching the finals of the Maui Invitational. CU would go on to make the Elite Eight before falling by one point in the final seconds.

After losing all five starters from its 2020-21 squad that reached the program's first Sweet 16 since 1974, Creighton brought in a top-10 recruiting class in 2021-22. The end result was a 23-12 final record, Ryan Kalkbrenner being named BIG EAST Defensive Player of the Year and Ryan Nembhard, Arthur Kaluma and Trey Alexander all earning a spot on the league's All-Freshman Team.

CU's 2020-21 team earned a runner-up finish in the BIG EAST regular-season and tournament. The Bluejays received a No. 5 seed in the NCAA Tournament, where it opened with a 63-62 win over UCSB before beating Ohio to reach the program's first Sweet 16 since 1974. Marcus Zegarowski was named an Honorable Mention All-American and drafted by the NBA's Brooklyn Nets.

McDermott picked up five different Coach of the Year honors in 2019-20 after guiding a Creighton team that was picked to finish seventh in the preseason BIG EAST poll to a No. 7 national ranking in the year-end AP poll. Creighton won a school-record six games vs. top-25 foes, including three top-10 triumphs, and also attracted a record 311,651 fans at CHI Health Center Omaha. McDermott won his 500th career game during the year, a Jan. 11 victory at Xavier.

The Bluejays were the top seed for the BIG EAST Tournament before the COVID-19 pandemic ended the season prematurely.

In 2018-19 McDermott guided the Jays to wins over No. 10 Marquette and No. 16 Clemson, the Cayman Islands Classic title, and a third consecutive third-place BIG EAST finish. Zegarowski was named to the All-Freshman Team and Martin Krampelj developed into one of the top post players in the BIG EAST after overcoming his third ACL injury. CU reached the NIT quarterfinals after being picked to finish ninth in the BIG EAST.

McDermott helped Creighton's 2017-18 team return to the NCAA Tournament after wins over No. 3 Villanova, No. 19 Seton Hall, No. 20 Northwestern and No. 23 UCLA. CU ranked fifth nationally with 17,000 fans per home game, and handed eventual national champ Villanova its final loss of the season on Feb. 24th. Marcus Foster was named First Team All-BIG EAST for the second straight year and Khyri Thomas repeated as BIG EAST Defensive Player of the Year before turning pro and being the 38th pick in the NBA Draft.

McDermott was also honored after the 2017-18 season with the NABC's Coaches vs. Cancer Champions Award, a testament to his work in the community and with the program's annual Pink Out game.

Creighton's 2016-17 team went 25-10, spending 16 consecutive weeks in the top-25, including a program-record No. 7 mark on January 16th. CU won the Paradise Jam and scored a school-record 2,864 points while posting four victories against top-25 competition. The Bluejays started the season 18-1 for the program's best 19 game start ever, and its 13 victories to start the campaign was its best since 1942-43. CU also finished fifth nationally in home attendance.

That team was aided by the successful integration of the top scoring newcomer in program history, Foster (18.2 ppg.), as well as 7-foot center Justin Patton, who declared for the NBA Draft after his redshirt freshman season and went 16th overall.

Creighton's 2015-16 team finished 20-15, winning a pair of postseason games to reach the quarterfinals of the NIT. The Bluejays won the Men Who Speak Up Main Event in Las Vegas, beat rival Nebraska by double-digits for a fifth straight season, and picked up victories over No. 5 Xavier and No. 18 Butler.

In 2013-14 McDermott's club led the nation in three-point percentage, three-pointers made and assist/turnover ratio, while also ranking second in three-pointers per game and assists per game. His son, Doug, swept all 14 National Player of the Year awards, led the nation in scoring (26.7 ppg.), became the fifth-leading scorer in Division I history (3,150 career points) and went on to become the 11th overall pick in the 2014 NBA Draft.

Making a huge leap from the Missouri Valley Conference to the mighty BIG EAST in 2013-14, Creighton finished second in its new conference in both the regular-season and league tournament. In the process, CU owned a pair of lopsided wins over top-10 Villanova, including a 96-68 road win that saw the Bluejays drain a three-pointer on each of their first nine possessions.

His 2012-13 team swept the MVC regular-season and tournament titles, defeating rival Wichita State in both deciding contests, and finished 28-8. The Bluejays won an NCAA Tournament game in consecutive seasons for the first time, before falling to Duke in the third round.

During the 2012-13 campaign Doug McDermott repeated as MVC Player of the Year and once again was named First Team All-American. He led the nation

Greg McDermott

McDermott's first year in Omaha was a success. He led Creighton to a 23-16 record as the Jays won a school-record four postseason games, advancing to the CBI finals.

Doug McDermott swept MVC Freshman and Newcomer of the Year awards while becoming the first freshman since 1952 to be named First Team All-MVC. Point guard Antoine Young was named Second Team All-Valley and also earned a spot on the MVC's Most-Improved Team. Echenique was named to the MVC All-Newcomer and All-Defensive Teams, while McDermott and Jahenns Manigat landed All-Freshman Team spots.

A native of Cascade, Iowa, Greg McDermott owns a 474-291 record in 23 seasons on the Division I sidelines. He has a 605-355 career mark in 30 seasons as a head coach, which includes 14 trips to the NCAA Tournament.

Before coming to Creighton, McDermott won 59 games in four seasons as head coach at Iowa State. He coached five players who earned all-conference recognition, including Craig Brackins, who in 2009 was the first Cyclone since 2001 to earn All-Big 12 First Team honors. He also coached Mike Taylor, who was a second-round pick in the 2008 NBA Draft and played for the Los Angeles Clippers in 2008-09.

McDermott's meteoric rise in the head coaching ranks occurred in his five seasons as the head coach at his alma mater, Northern Iowa. Taking over a program that had not posted a winning season since 1997, McDermott's recipe for success launched the UNI program into the national spotlight. In his third season with the Panthers, McDermott led UNI to the 2004 Missouri Valley Conference Tournament title and its second NCAA Tournament appearance in school history while recording a 21-10 mark.

He backed up UNI's 2004 season with yet another NCAA Tournament bid in 2005, this time earning the Panthers' first at-large berth with a No. 11 seed. The Panthers tallied a 21-11 record and took No. 6 seed Wisconsin to the wire, falling 57-52. The 2006 UNI season was just as successful, as McDermott led the Panthers to their first Associated Press Top 25 ranking while tying a then-school record with 23 wins. UNI defeated five NCAA Tournament teams en route to its third consecutive NCAA Tournament appearance with a No. 10 seed.

McDermott compiled a 90-63 record at UNI, earning him a spot in the school's Intercollegiate Athletics Hall of Fame in 2015.

McDermott has coached 50 players who have earned some sort of postseason league award in his 23 years as a Division I coach, including four players who earned First Team All-MVC honors a combined seven times (Doug McDermott, David Gruber, Ben Jacobson, Grant Stout), one First Team All-Big 12 pick (Craig Brackins), six First Team All BIG EAST picks (Doug McDermott, Marcus Foster, Ty-Shon Alexander, Marcus Zegarowski, Ryan Kalkbrenner and Baylor Scheierman) as well as the BIG EAST Freshmen of the Year in 2017 (Justin Patton) and 2022 (Ryan Nembhard).

McDermott received his first head coaching job at Wayne State (Neb.) from 1994-2000. He led the Wildcats to four-straight 20-win seasons, one Northern Sun Conference title and a pair of NCAA Division II Tournament appearances, including a Sweet 16 berth in 2000. He won 116 games in his six years with the Wildcats, earning conference coach of the year honors in 2000.

He left Wayne State to take over the coaching duties at Division II North Dakota State for one season (2000-01) before heading to Cedar Falls. The Bison finished 15-11 overall and defeated three top-25 opponents on the road.

McDermott began his coaching career as an assistant at the University of North Dakota from 1989-94. During his tenure, UND made five consecutive NCAA Division II Tournament appearances, were ranked No. 1 in the final 1991 NCAA poll and won two North Central Conference crowns. He was also a part of two North Central Region Championships and compiled a 126-37 record in six years.

An All-State center for Cascade High School in 1983, McDermott entered the IHSAA Hall of Fame in 2015 and the Cascade High School Hall of Fame in 2022 for his playing prowess as a prep.

He accepted UNI head coach Jim Berry's scholarship offer to play for the Panthers. He played three years for Berry and two seasons for the legendary Eldon Miller, recording 1,033 career points to rank 40th on UNI's all-time scoring chart.

As a junior at UNI he ranked 16th nationally in field-goal percentage (58.7 percent) and shot 60.3 percent from the field as a senior. The 6-foot-8 center was named Second Team All-Mid-Continent Conference as a junior and was a team co-captain as a senior. McDermott received his degree from Northern Iowa in 1988.

He played professionally in Switzerland for one season after graduation before beginning his coaching career.

McDermott and his wife, Theresa, have three children: Nick, Doug and Sydney. Doug is a 10-year NBA veteran who played for the Spurs and Pacers in 2023-24.

Ryan Miller

Assistant Coach - Fourth Season at Creighton

Assistant coach Ryan Miller enters his fourth season at Creighton in 2024-25.

Miller helped CU secure the nation's No. 7 recruiting class shortly after arriving on campus in the spring of 2021. That group ultimately included three members of the BIG EAST's All-Freshman team -- Trey Alexander, Ryan Nembhard and Arthur Kaluma. The 2024 class was another Top 20 haul.

Miller oversaw a Bluejay defense that ranked 19th-best nationally per KenPom in 2021-22, and 14th in 2022-23 before coordinating CU's No. 9 offense last season.

The South Dakota native arrived at Creighton after serving five seasons at TCU as an assistant coach (2016-18) and as an assistant head coach (2018-21).

The Horned Frogs reached the postseason three times with Miller on staff, including a 2018 NCAA Tournament trip that was the program's first bid to the Big Dance in 20 seasons. TCU's nine Big 12 wins that season remain a program record.

In Miller's first campaign as an assistant coach at TCU, the Horned Frogs improved from 12 wins to 24 victories and claimed the 2017 NIT title. TCU's 24 victories were tied for the second-most in program history.

Miller is regarded as one of the top recruiters in the country and helped to lure future NBA First Round pick Desmond Bane to TCU. Before his time in Fort Worth, Miller was part of a UNLV staff that landed the nation's No. 11 and No. 5 ranked recruiting classes in 2015 and 2014, respectively.

During his time at UNLV, Miller developed and coached Rashad Vaughn, who was selected No. 17 overall by the Milwaukee Bucks in the 2015 NBA Draft. A 2014 McDonald's All-American and five-star recruit, Vaughn was ranked as high as No. 8 nationally coming out of Findlay College Prep. He was named Mountain West Freshman of the Year at UNLV after averaging 17.8 points and 4.8 rebounds per game.

Miller was named the fourth-best recruiter outside the Power 5 while at UNLV by ESPN's Jeff Borzello and Adam Finkelstein and had a hand in the Rebels garnering commitments from two Top-100 signees in 2015 in five star Stephen Zimmerman, who was rated the nation's No. 12 player by ESPN, and Derrick Jones, a four-star recruit who was ranked in the top-50 nationally. Another notable student-athlete during Miller's stay at UNLV was Christian Wood who plays for the Los Angeles Lakers.

Miller has also been an assistant coach at Auburn, New Mexico, Pepperdine and Memphis. Miller has coached in seven NCAA Tournaments, won five regular-season titles and one league tournament title on the sidelines.

Prior to his time at UNLV, Miller spent two years as an associate head coach at Auburn between 2012-14. Before that, Miller served five seasons as an assistant coach at New Mexico under Steve Alford. During his tenure, the Lobos went 126-46 overall and made five consecutive postseason trips, including a pair of NCAA Tournament berths. New Mexico also won two regular-season Mountain West Conference Championships and one league tournament crown. Miller spent 2006-07 as an assistant coach at Pepperdine before joining the New Mexico staff.

He began his college coaching career as the video coordinator and Assistant Director of Basketball Operations at Memphis under John Calipari between 2003-06. During his three years with the Tigers, Memphis compiled a 77-28 record and appeared in three postseasons, including two NCAA Tournament trips. In 2006, Miller aided in guiding the Tigers to the Sweet 16. Among those he worked with while at Memphis is current Creighton assistant Derek Kellogg.

The Mitchell, S.D., native attended Northern State, where he was a two-time Northern Sun All-Conference selection. He finished his career eighth on Northern State's all-time scoring list after leading his teams to four straight league championships and the 1998 regional title.

He was named a Division II All-American and

Steve Merfeld

Assistant to the Head Coach - 15th Season at Creighton

Steve Merfeld gives Creighton the unique distinction of having two staff members who have won NCAA Tournament games as a head coach.

After three seasons as a Creighton assistant coach, Merfeld was elevated to assistant to the head coach position in April 2013, and enters his 12th season in that role.

In his first year at Creighton, he worked with MVC Newcomer and Freshman of the Year Doug McDermott, Preseason MVC Player of the Year Kenny Lawson Jr., and MVC All-Defensive Team big man Gregory Echenique. In his second season, McDermott became Creighton's first player named First Team All-American, while Echenique became CU's first honoree to be named MVC Defensive Player of the Year.

In 2012-13, McDermott repeated as a First Team All-American and as MVC Player of the Year, while Echenique became Creighton's first player to be named to the MVC's All-Defensive Team in three straight seasons. In addition, sharpshooting forward Ethan Wragge was named MVC Sixth Man of the Year.

McDermott would go on to sweep all 14 National Player of the Year honors in 2013-14.

Creighton has won 325 of 485 games in the past 14 seasons, making nine NCAA Tournament and two NIT trips. Creighton tied the school record with 29 wins in 2011-12, then had 28 more wins in 2012-13 and 27 in 2013-14.

Merfeld boasts 38 years of NCAA Division I experience, including 10 seasons as a head coach: at Hampton from 1997-02 and at Evansville from 2002-07.

As a college head coach, Merfeld collected 144 wins, two regular-season conference championships, two conference tournament titles and two NCAA Tournament appearances. That first postseason appearance in 2001 led to one of the signature moments in NCAA Tournament history as the video of his players lifting him up in celebration following No. 15 seed Hampton's upset of No. 2 seed Iowa State in the 2001 tourney remains a popular March Madness clip.

Merfeld led Hampton to a winning record in four of his five years, finishing with a 90-57 (.612) record that was capped by back-to-back sweeps of the Mid-Eastern Athletic Conference regular-season and tournament titles in 2001 and 2002. After Hampton became just the fourth No. 15 seed to win an NCAA Tournament game in 2001, Merfeld's Pirates became the first 15-seed winner to return to the NCAA Tournament the following season.

In his final season at Hampton, Merfeld led the 2001-02 Pirates to a school-record 26 wins and a return to the NCAA Tournament as he was named the CollegeInsider.com Mid-Major Coach of the Year.

He replaced longtime Evansville head coach Jim Crews in 2002 and directed the Purple Aces to an RPI that improved 131 spots during his tenure. His Evansville teams also collected 11 victories against postseason squads (7 NCAA, 4 NIT). In addition to four All-Missouri Valley Conference players, he coached two-time CoSIDA Academic All-American Clint Cuffle (2003, 2004) and a trio of 1,000-point scorers on his 2006-07 squad.

Merfeld was a member of the Bradley coaching staff for three seasons; starting in 2007, helping the Braves to a pair of 21-win seasons, including seven postseason victories that helped Bradley claim a pair of postseason tournament runner-up finishes.

A 1984 graduate of Wisconsin-La Crosse, Merfeld was a 10-year assistant for current Miami (Fla.) head coach Jim Larrañaga at Bowling Green prior to joining the Hampton staff as an assistant in 1996. During his time with the Falcons, Merfeld established himself as a highly-regarded recruiter and is credited with signing Antonio Daniels, the fourth pick in the 1997 NBA Draft. He also landed three Mid-American Conference Rookies of the

2025 BIG EAST Tournament

The best conference tournament in college basketball is the BIG EAST Tournament, which returns to Madison Square Garden for the 43rd consecutive season. It is the nation's longest-running conference tournament at any one site, and will continue through at least 2032 at MSG.

The BIG EAST Tournament has been home to some of the most storied moments in NCAA history, including Connecticut's run of five wins in five days in 2011 en route to the national title, and an epic six-overtime game between Connecticut and Syracuse in 2009.

Georgetown (8) and Connecticut (8) lead the seven current schools in the BIG EAST to have won a title.

Only two players have been named Tournament MVP in consecutive seasons, Georgetown's Patrick Ewing (1984 & 1985) and Louisville's Peyton Siva (2012 & 2013).

Prior to moving the tournament to Madison Square Garden, the first three years of the BIG EAST Tourney were held in Providence (1980), Syracuse (1981) and Hartford (1982).

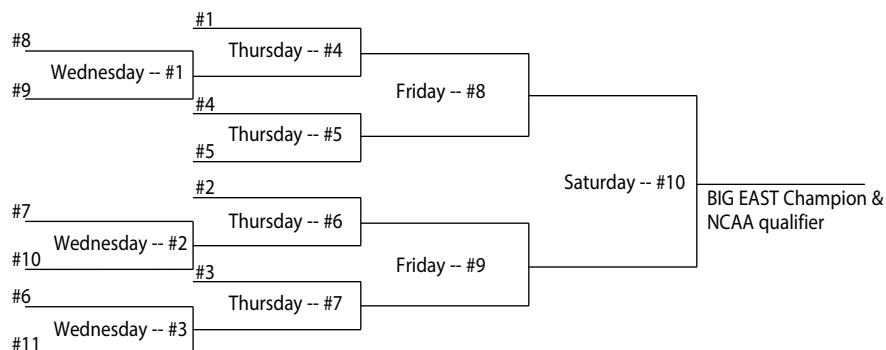

All 10 basketball games of the 2025 BIG EAST Tournament will be broadcast on FS1, Peacock and FOX.

The 2025 BIG EAST Tournament will take place in New York City from March 12-15 at Madison Square Garden.

2023-24 Season Recap

Creighton's 2023-24 season featured a return to the Sweet 16 and 20 weeks in the Top 25 as the Bluejays finished with a 25-10 record.

Greg McDermott's 14th team on The Hilltop came in with lofty expectations, being ranked No. 8 in the preseason polls after a trip to the Elite Eight in the spring of 2023. The return of three starters and a pair of key reserves, plus a few transfer portal additions, helped propel Creighton to a second straight preseason Top 10 ranking.

Creighton rolled in its first four games, all at home, highlighted by a 92-84 win over Iowa in the final rendition of the Gavitt Tipoff Games. CU spent its Thanksgiving in Kansas City, where it handled eventual Atlantic-10 Conference regular-season champion Loyola Chicago before suffering its first loss of the winter against Colorado State.

The Bluejays responded in fine fashion, posting back-to-back lopsided road wins at Oklahoma State (79-65) and Nebraska (89-60). It would end up being the lone home loss of the year for the Cornhuskers, who returned to the NCAA Tournament for just the second time in 25 years.

CU then hammered Central Michigan to improve to 8-1 before suffering a setback at UNLV on Dec. 13th. Creighton closed out non-conference play with an 85-82 home win over Alabama, which went on to make its first Final Four appearance in program history.

League play opened on Dec. 20th with an overtime loss to Villanova. That night was memorable as Doug McDermott's No. 3 jersey was raised to the rafters at CHI Health Center Omaha. Creighton closed out the 2023 calendar year with a 72-67 loss at No. 10 Marquette in a game that was televised on CBS.

CU opened 2024 with a 77-60 win at Georgetown, which was followed by a 69-60 win over No. 23 Providence. The win streak reached four after CU's 11th straight road win at DePaul and a come-from-behind one-point win against St.

John's and Hall of Fame coach Rick Pitino.

Creighton lost to eventual national champion Connecticut on Jan. 17th but bounced back with a thrilling three-OT win at Seton Hall three days later. The Bluejays closed out January with home wins over Xavier and DePaul to move its record to 16-5.

February started with a high-scoring home loss to Butler and an overtime defeat at Providence before handing Xavier a rare home defeat. The victory over the Musketeers opened another four-game win streak, which included a 79-57 win at Butler before an 85-66 win vs. top-ranked UConn. It would be UConn's only loss in 27 games in 2024, and its only loss at full-strength all season, in addition to being CU's first win ever over a team ranked No. 1. The celebration turned into just the third court storming in Creighton's CHI Health Center Omaha history. The win was Creighton's 20th of the season, and 600th in McDermott's career.

Creighton lost to St. John's inside Madison Square Garden that weekend before closing the regular-season with double-digit home wins over Seton Hall and No. 5 Marquette, as well as a final-second 69-67 win at Villanova.

The late-season surge helped Creighton earn the No. 2 seed in the BIG EAST Tournament, but the Bluejays were upset in the quarterfinals against a seventh-seeded Providence squad that was led by BIG EAST Player of the Year Devin Carter.

The loss in the Big Apple gave Creighton a few extra days of rest heading into the NCAA Tournament, where it earned a No. 3 seed in the Midwest Region and was shipped to Pittsburgh.

Creighton turned away Akron, 77-60, in the First Round of the NCAA Tournament, its biggest margin of victory ever in an NCAA Tournament game. Two days later, the Bluejays needed double-overtime to knock off Oregon and former CU head coach Dana Altman, 86-73. The Bluejays rallied from four points down in the final 30 seconds of regulation and used a 15-0 run to start the second overtime to secure its third Sweet 16 trip in the past four years.

Greg McDermott and Dana Altman

2023-24 Season Recap

Francisco Farabello, Baylor Scheierman and Ryan Kalkbrenner were recognized on Senior Day.

Creighton's season came to an end the following weekend in the Regional Semifinal, losing 82-75 to No. 6 Tennessee.

On a team full of standouts, Baylor Scheierman was a star. He was named a unanimous First Team All-BIG EAST pick, named a Second or Third Team All-American by nine organizations and was one of five finalists for the Julius Erving Small Forward of the Year Award. He led Creighton in scoring (18.5 ppg.)

and led the BIG EAST in three-pointers made (110) and rebounds grabbed (315). He also became the first men's player in Division I history to amass at least 2,000 points, 1,000 rebounds, 500 assists and 300 three-pointers in a career.

Scheierman's versatility was showcased in a Feb. 13th win over Georgetown, when he had CU's first points/rebounds/assists triple-double in program history.

Both Trey Alexander and Ryan Kalkbrenner were named Second Team All-BIG EAST. Alexander averaged 17.6

points and 5.7 rebounds per game while also dishing a team-best 165 assists. His 37.3 minutes per game were the most nationally by a player from a Power 6 league. Kalkbrenner picked up Honorable Mention All-America honors from the Associated Press and 247Sports, as he finished second nationally in blocks per game as well as seventh in field goal percentage. In the process, Kalkbrenner broke program records for points, blocks and wins appeared in for both an NCAA and BIG EAST Tournament.

Creighton made a program-record 375 three-pointers, and its 78.8 percent marksmanship from the free-throw line was also a school-record. CU committed a nation-low 11.5 fouls per game, and were the nation's only team to not have a player be disqualified with five fouls in 2023-24.

In the end, it all added up to a 25-10 record, the program's most wins since 2016-17, and a year-end ranking of No. 10 in the USA Today Coaches poll, No. 11 in the NET and No. 13 in the final Associated Press poll. Creighton's 17,269 fans per game ranked sixth-most nationally.

2023-24 Plus/Minus and Situtational Records

Game-by-Game Plus/Minus Chart

The plus/minus figure is a comparison of the Bluejays' points scored (plus) vs. their points allowed (minus) while a specific player is on the floor. For example, if Francisco Farabello entered the game in the first half with Creighton trailing by five and he departs two minutes later with the Jays ahead by three, he earns a +8 for that stint. These results are tabulated for every player at the conclusion of each game, and also expressed cumulatively. Underlined totals indicate that player led team that night. Home games listed in ALL CAPS.

Creighton Basketball Glossary

All-Americans

Creighton has produced 34 All-Americans in 105 seasons, beginning with Leonard F. "Jimmy" Lovely in 1923 and 1924. Doug McDermott was a three-time consensus First Team All-American (2011-12, 2012-13 and 2013-14) while picking up 14 different National Player of the Year honors as a senior. Most recently, Baylor Scheierman and Ryan Kalkbrenner were named All-Americans in 2023-24.

Altman, Dana

Creighton's all-time winningest coach with 327 wins, Dana Altman is the only coach in MVC history to lead his school to seven straight years of improved records. Altman won three MVC regular-season titles, six MVC Tournament crowns and led his teams to 13 postseason bids in a row before going to Oregon after the 2009-10 season. He was inducted into the Creighton Athletics Hall of Fame in 2018.

Apke Brothers, Tom and Rick

Former Bluejay coach Tom Apke is the only coach in school history to have led Creighton to the NCAA Tournament in his first season with the team (1974-75). A team captain on Creighton's 1964-65 team, Apke went on to coach the Bluejays to a 130-64 record from 1974-81.

While Tom was coaching the Bluejays to the postseason, his brother, Rick, was beginning to blossom as a player. After Rick averaged 6.4 points per game during his freshman season, he burst onto the scene as a sophomore with a scoring norm of 16.8 points per game. Rick went on to score 1,682 career points from 1974-78, now the ninth-highest total in school history.

Belford, "Duce", J.V.

J.V. "Duce" Belford was referred to as "Mr. Creighton Athletics" in the 1959-60 Creighton basketball media guide. Belford served the athletic department in a variety of roles for 39 years, beginning in 1922 as a student manager. In 1934, he was appointed part-time athletic director and was promoted to full-time A.D. in 1952. During his 39 years at Creighton, he served as the freshman basketball and football coach, varsity basketball coach, director of intramurals, track and field coach, baseball coach and golf coach. Belford passed away during the summer of 1961 following a long illness.

Benjamin, Benoit

A two-time AP All-America center for the Bluejays in the early 1980s, Benoit Benjamin began a 15-year NBA career in 1985 as the third overall draft pick in the first round by the Los Angeles Clippers. Benjamin is the all-time leader for blocked shots in Missouri Valley Conference history with 411 rejections. As a junior during the 1984-85 season, he led all of NCAA Division I in blocked shots and was the nation's second-leading rebounder.

Collin, Conrad "Cornie"

Twice an All-MVC forward and the league's leading scorer, Conrad "Cornie" Collin suffered a knee injury during a football scrimmage against the freshmen prior to the 1933 season. Conference Affiliation

Creighton enters its 12th year as a member of the BIG EAST Conference, having joined the league on July 1, 2013. The move came after a 54-year affiliation with the Missouri Valley Conference

The Bluejays began play in 1916-17 with membership in both the Nebraska Collegiate Conference and Western Catholic Conference. After playing the next five seasons as an independent, Creighton was a member of the North Central Conference from 1922-27 before beginning its first stint in the MVC.

Prior to the 1948-49 season, the Bluejays withdrew from the MVC and remained independent until rejoining The Valley in 1977.

Conference Titles

Creighton shared its first BIG EAST Conference title in 2019-20, beating No. 8 Seton Hall on the final day of the regular-season before a sellout crowd.

Creighton also has won 15 regular-season titles (8 outright, 7 shared), 12 MVC Tournament championships, four North Central Conference titles, one Nebraska Collegiate Conference crown and one Western Catholic Conference championship in its 106-year history of hoops.

So: wave, colors, wave
We will fight on for your glory.
White and Blue!
We will fight till the fight is won."*

Coach Eddie Mulholland was hired prior to the 1920-21 season. However they had a dance the night before a Feb. 4, 1921 game vs. Des Moines, and the floor was very slick for the game. After Des Moines handed CU its first loss of the year, there was an argument about whether there would be dances before games, and subsequently, Mulholland quit as coach. Kearney, who was serving as team captain, took over coaching, too.

Korver, Kyle

Two-time Missouri Valley Conference Player of the Year Kyle Korver ranks as one of the top players in Valley history. He finished tied for sixth in NCAA history with 371 career three-pointers while placing 14th in accuracy at 45.3 percent from long-range. Chosen by ESPN's Dick Vitale as the 2002-03 Midseason National Player of the Year, Korver helped lead Creighton's return to the top-25 and garnered unprecedented attention for his all-around play. An NBA All-Star in 2015, he retired in 2021 and now works in the Atlanta Hawks front office.

Major Leaguers

Bob Gibson and Dennis Rasmussen went on to enjoy stellar Major League Baseball careers following their Creighton basketball days. Gibson was an All-American on the court for the Jays and played for the Harlem Globetrotters in 1957-58 before opting for baseball full-time. Among Gibson's career achievements on the diamond were 251 career wins, nine straight Gold Gloves, two Cy Young Awards, two World Series championships, a 1971 no-hitter against Pittsburgh, a first ballot Hall of Famer in 1981 and a spot on Major League Baseball's All-Century Team.

Rasmussen was a solid contributor for the Bluejay basketball team during 1977-80, and went on to win 91 games in the Majors with the Pirates, Yankees, Royals, Reds and Cubs.

Creighton owns two basketball alums that have played in the Olympics, Willard Schmidt (1936) and Gregory Echenique (2016). Schmidt was part of the US team that won a gold medal in Berlin, while Echenique represented his home country of Venezuela in Rio de Janeiro.

Schmidt and Echenique are two of seven former Creighton student-athletes to appear in the Olympics, joining Carl Vincequerra (1936 boxing), Scott Servais (1988 baseball), Chad McConnell (1992 baseball), Duncan McGuire (2024 soccer) and Taryn Kloth (2024 beach volleyball).

"I'm more proud of my academic success at Creighton than of all my athletic accomplishments.

"What Creighton University does for an athlete or any student is that they teach you how to think, how to deal with everyday living.

"What I learned at Creighton has helped me close the gap between professional sports and the business world."

"I'm really proud of where Creighton is, and how Creighton has managed to stay true to who they are, but still do it on a larger scale. Being in the BIG EAST now, playing in this kind of arena, and Doug (McDermott) with all the accomplishments he had really took Creighton to another level. I've always been proud to say I played at Creighton, and I think it's because of the people mostly. The people at Creighton, the people in Omaha."

22-7 Overall, Independent

A CoSIDA First Team Academic All-American, Paul Silas was the Catholic Colleges Player of the Year and a Third Team All-American by both AP and UPI ... Silas finished second nationally with 21.75 rebounds per game, just .05 behind the leader, but led the nation in total rebounds (631) for the third-straight season ... Creighton's 22 wins established a then-school record and remains one of the best victory totals in school history ... of the Jays' five regular season losses, three came against NCAA Tourney qualifiers; defending and eventual national champion UCLA, Oklahoma City and Providence; and Creighton defeated Arizona State and Utah State.

Below: Red McManus ranks third in school history with 138 wins, and his national scheduling philosophy helped put Creighton on the map.

23-7 Overall, Independent

The first coach in NCAA history to guide four different schools to the NCAA Tournament, Eddie Sutton began that run with the 1973-74 Bluejays ... Creighton's 23 wins tied the 1921-22 squad's school record for victories in a season ... the 23 wins would remain the school record until the 1990-91 team went 24-8 ... during the summer of 1973, the Bluejay basketball team played an exhibition tour in 10 Brazilian cities ... including their exhibition tour, the 1973-74 Bluejays played games on two continents (North America and South America) and in 13 states (Arizona, California, Colorado, Hawaii, Indiana, Illinois, Kansas, Missouri, Nebraska, Oklahoma, South Dakota, Texas and Wisconsin).

Eddie Sutton's Creighton teams became known for their willingness to play anyone, anywhere, as evidenced by the "Travelin' Jays" theme from 1973-74. Even Sports Illustrated featured Creighton that season.

25-10 Overall, 14-6 BIG EAST (T-2nd)

Creighton returned to the Sweet 16 for the third time in four seasons, and its 25 wins matched its most since 2016-17 ... Creighton was ranked No. 8 nationally in the AP's preseason poll and in the Top 25 all but one week during the season ... The Bluejays handed Nebraska their only loss in Lincoln, 89-60 ... Creighton was the last team to defeat eventual NCAA champ UConn, handing the Huskies their largest loss (85-66) of the year. It was also CU's first win ever over a top-ranked team ... CU beat Akron and Oregon in the NCAA Tournament before losing in the Regional Semifinal to No. 6 Tennessee ... Baylor Scheierman was a unanimous First Team All-BIG EAST pick and joined Ryan Kalkbrenner in picking up All-American honors. Kalkbrenner earned his third BIG EAST Defensive Player of the Year plaudit ... Steven Ashworth won the BIG EAST's Sportsmanship Award.

Creighton's 77-60 win over Akron was its largest margin of victory ever in an NCAA Tournament game, and the Bluejays followed that up with an 86-73 double-overtime triumph against Oregon to return to the Sweet 16.

1984 National Invitation Tournament

17-14 Overall, 8-8 MVC (4th)

After finishing fourth during the 1983-84 MVC regular-season race, the Bluejays advanced to the MVC Tournament championship game by earning what had been the program's only win against Illinois State in Normal, Ill., until 1999-00's win over the Redbirds ... after dropping a tough 70-68 overtime decision at Tulsa in the Valley Tournament title game, the Bluejays played host to the University of Nebraska in the first round of the NIT, losing 56-54 in front of 9,158 fans at the Omaha Civic Auditorium ... sophomore center Benoit Benjamin earned First Team All-MVC honors by averaging 16.2 points, 9.8 rebounds and 5.2 blocked shots per game, while junior guard Vernon Moore earned Second Team All-MVC honors.

21-12 Overall, 9-5 MVC (Tie-2nd)

Creighton's 1989-90 team became the school's first team to finish with back-to-back 20-win seasons since 1973-74 (23-7) and 1974-75 (20-7) ... Illinois State played the role of spoiler down the stretch for the Bluejays, though, by handing Creighton an 83-77 loss in the regular season finale at Redbird Arena, which prevented the Bluejays from earning at least a share of the Valley's regular season title ... a week later, Illinois State knocked the Bluejays out of the MVC Tournament with a 69-64 setback in the second round at Redbird Arena ... back in Illinois for the fourth time in five games, Creighton dropped an 89-72 decision at DePaul in the first round of the NIT ... Bob Harstad became the first Bluejay player to be named the league's Most Valuable Player.

Athletic Director and President

McCormick Endowed Athletic Director Marcus Blossom

Marcus Blossom is in his fourth year as McCormick Endowed Athletic Director at Creighton.

Creighton has enjoyed historic levels of success in Blossom's first three years on the job, as Bluejay teams have made 13 postseason appearances, won four conference tournament titles, three regular-season titles and had 54 First Team All-Conference selections to go with six Conference Coach of the Year accolades. The Bluejays have had seven College Sports Communicators Academic All-Americans during Blossom's tenure.

Among Creighton's most prominent student-athletes in his reign have been 2022 MAC Hermann Trophy Award winner and 2024 Olympian Duncan McGuire, NBA Draft pick Baylor Scheierman and USA Basketball 3x3 MVP Morgan Maly.

Creighton is the nation's only school to reach the Elite Eight in men's soccer, men's basketball and women's basketball in the last three years. Creighton and UCLA are also the nation's only schools to reach the Sweet 16 at least once in men's soccer, women's volleyball, men's basketball and women's basketball in the past three years.

The work performed by Bluejay student-athletes in the classroom also featured excellence across the board. The men's track program owned the nation's best GPA in 2023-24. CU had a combined seven programs recognized by the BIG EAST with Team Academic Excellence Awards in 2021-22 and 2022-23, then four more teams earned the accolade in 2023-24. CU student-athletes owned a 3.48 GPA in the spring of 2024.

As athletic director at Holy Cross, Blossom led the development of the athletics department's first strategic plan, with a focus on creating a high-performance culture, achieving and sustaining competitive excellence, and increasing ticket sales, external support and community engagement, while also enhancing facilities.

Under his leadership, academic success within the Holy Cross athletics program was among the very best in the nation, ranking first for graduation success rate, with the school receiving more than a dozen Division I Academic Progress Rate public recognition awards from the NCAA. Several teams at Holy Cross posted multi-year APR scores in the top 10% of all squads in their respective sports.

Prior to his time at Holy Cross, Blossom spent five years at Boston College as senior associate athletics director for business and administration. While there, he was a member of the executive team and assisted with all aspects of strategic planning and vision execution for the department of athletics.

Blossom has a deep background with Jesuit higher education, and he is no stranger to the BIG EAST, having spent two years with Providence College as associate athletic director for business operations. Earlier in his career, he also served as assistant director of championships for the NCAA, managing the complex process of championship host-city selection, among other duties.

Blossom, who is from Chicago and has strong Midwestern ties, earned his Bachelor's Degree in Business Administration with a concentration in finance at Northeastern University, a Master's Degree in Sport Management from West Virginia University and an MBA from the University of Rhode Island. While earning his undergraduate degree at Northeastern University, Blossom was a three-time GTE/CoSIDA Academic All-District and three-time all-conference selection in men's basketball.

Blossom and his wife, Karli, have two daughters, Maya and Mora.

President Rev. Daniel S. Hendrickson, S.J., Ph.D.

The Rev. Daniel S. Hendrickson, SJ, PhD, is the 25th president of Creighton University. A former student, faculty member, and trustee of Creighton, Fr. Hendrickson is guided by a deep passion for the Creighton mission to form leaders that will go on to build a more just world.

Fr. Hendrickson first encountered Creighton as a student in the Jesuit Humanities Program in the 1996 before returning to teach at the University from 2000 to 2003. He was elected to the Creighton Board of Trustees in 2013, elected president of Creighton in December 2014, and began his tenure July 1, 2015.

Prior to serving as Creighton University president, he held positions at Jordan University College in Morogoro, Tanzania; Fordham University in New York; and Marquette University in 2012.

During his presidency, the University has experienced record-breaking enrollments; an expansion of academic program offerings and undergraduate research opportunities; and national recognition as one of only 25 higher education institutions named to the Carnegie Foundation's Leadership for Public Purpose elective designation.

Fr. Hendrickson has also overseen significant expansion and enhancements to the University's physical footprint. This includes more than half-a-billion dollars in investments to the urban core of Omaha through infrastructural improvements as well as building a brand-new campus in Phoenix in 2021 for interprofessional health sciences education, including a second four-year school of medicine, with the ability to serve approximately 1,000 students in one of the fastest-growing cities in the country.

Moreover, with Fr. Hendrickson's leadership, Creighton strengthened its philanthropic support. As of 2024, the University has seen a 33 percent increase in endowed chairs during his tenure with 13 positions being created since 2015 and 12 of those funded during the ambitious Forward Blue campaign, which was launched in 2021. More than $650 million has been raised in support of campus improvements; mission-driven services and programs; and student success, including an impressive $208 million as scholarship dollars, providing financial assistance to more than 6,700 students.

Outside of Creighton, Fr. Hendrickson serves on the boards of Boston College and Xavier University as well as serving as the current chair of the BIG EAST Conference Board of Directors. He is also a trustee of ILAC/Centro de Educación para la Salud Integral (CESI) in the Dominican Republic; and Jesuit Worldwide Learning (JWL).

Fr. Hendrickson holds a BA from Marquette University; an MA in philosophical resources from Fordham University; a Master of Divinity degree from the Jesuit School of Theology at Santa Clara University; and MA and PhD degrees from Columbia University.

BIG EAST Conference

Creighton University officially became a member of the BIG EAST Conference at 12:01 a.m. on July 1, 2013. The 2024-25 season will be Creighton's 12th in the league.

Creighton, along with fellow newcomers Butler and Xavier, joined a BIG EAST that retained DePaul, Georgetown, Marquette, Seton Hall, Providence, Villanova and St. John's. The partnership was announced on March 20, 2013, in New York. The University of Connecticut rejoined the league in the summer of 2020.

The 2024-25 academic year will be the 46th in the history of the BIG EAST, a league synonymous with men's basketball that has evolved into a well-rounded league that competes nationally at the highest level in sports across the board. BIG EAST basketball squads have captured 16 titles in the last 25 years, including back-to-back titles the past two years by UConn.

Since opening its doors in 1979, the league has won 44 national championships in eight different sports and 146 student-athletes have won individual national titles through 2023-24. Since the league's 2013 alignment, the BIG EAST has produced 12 individual national champions.

All 11 universities reside within a top-70 media market, including nine schools in a top-36 market.

The BIG EAST became a reality on May 31, 1979, following a meeting of athletic directors from the original seven-school alliance.
